PRIVATE INTERVIEW

Wardrobe: You are expected to wear an outfit much like something a stylish news anchor would wear - something professional and polished, such as a dress, pantsuit, or jumpsuit, in addition to a pair of heels that you are comfortable walking and standing in. Ensure that it is appropriate, not too short or revealing, and it overall fits your style!

Jewelry Tip: When considering your jewelry choices, simple metal hoops or studs are great for your private interview. Necklaces, busy bracelets, and flashy rings aren't typically worn in these competitions.

Shoes Tip: For Private Interview, wear closed-toe shoes if you have the option! They tend to be more professional looking.

OPENING NUMBER & ON-STAGE QUESTION

Wardrobe: You are required to wear a semi-formal black outfit, such as a cocktail dress or jumpsuit, in addition to a pair of nude or black heels that you are comfortable walking in. Ensure that it is appropriate, not too short or revealing, and it overall fits your style!

FITNESS PHASE OF COMPETITION

Wardrobe: You are required to wear a red athletic-wear set from the Rebel Athletic Miss America Collection in addition to a pair of clean, white gym shoes.

*You can also find several delegates selling their lightly used Rebel Athletic Miss America Collection pieces through Facebook groups and Marketplace at a lower price than retail if you want to go that route.

TALENT

Wardrobe: You are expected to wear an outfit suited for your talent. This should fit you well, be appropriate, if floor length - the hem should barely graze the floor when wearing your shoes, and please ensure that it won't have any wardrobe malfunctions happen. If you are moving around a lot, consider using fashion tape to keep your outfit in place!

EVENINGWEAR

Wardrobe: You are expected to wear an eveningwear outfit that is “suited for the red carpet.” A prom dress is a great option! The majority of people do wear gowns, however if you did want to wear something else such as a glamorous jumpsuit or pantsuit, that works too! You will wear this in addition to a pair of heels that you are comfortable walking and standing in. This should fit you well, the hem should barely graze the floor when wearing your heels, and please ensure that it won’t have any wardrobe malfunctions happen.

Jewelry Tip: When considering your jewelry choices, earrings are typically the star of the show in eveningwear! Don’t be afraid of big and bling for eveningwear earrings, though something simple is acceptable as well of course! Necklaces, busy bracelets, and flashy rings aren’t typically worn in these competitions.

Shoes Tip: For Eveningwear, wear open-toe shoes if you have the option! They are more-so meant to be worn with more formal attire like eveningwear.
